1.2 Local Advisory Board

Members of the Local Advisory Board are chosen by CCRR's Board of Trustees. On the one hand, the Local Advisory Board helps to develop the center, being a source for instruction and advice. On the other hand, the Board campaigns for CCRR's mission inside the Palestinian community. The Board members are chosen among those who believe and support CCRR's mission, ideas, work, and program. They are invited to meet once a year to discuss and contribute to CCRR's development process. Additionally, CCRR is obliged to regularly provide them with all necessary reports on CCRR's work, its strategy and programs.

1.3 International Advisory Board

The CCRR International Advisory Board contributes to the work of the CCRR both through its advice and the reputation of its members. CCRR profits from the international know-how, experience, opinions and ideas of its members. At the same time, the board spreads CCRR's messages internationally. CCRR keeps in contact with the International Advisory Board mainly vial e-mail. CCRR has committed itself to informing the International Advisory Board of the center's work, current programs and development. The members of the Advisory Board are expected to follow the work of CCRR and to give feedback on its reporting.
